

NIEVES ROSELL ABOUT ME

Born in Argentina, Nieves Rosell is an accomplished singer-songwriter and performer, who nowadays splits her time between Sao Paulo, Bahia, Buenos Aires and Rosario, working in cruise ships in between gigs and recordings. Nieves learned her craft singing from a very young age in her native town of Rosario. She performed all through her teens with many of the best local musicians, singing rock, pop, and argentinian music like many other local artists.

The twist- and what defines her style today- came when she heard brazilian samba, bossa nova, and jazz. A passionate artist, Nieves Rosell went all the way and moved to Brazil to perform and learn about this music and stayed for years singing, playing and researching.

Her first original album of songs (produced by Daniel Pellegrinet) is a mixture of brazilian rhythms, melodic jazz and pop songs, with a very unique style with lyrics in spanish and portuguese.

In 2023 she released the single "Cassia" (co-written with local argentinian legendary poet and musician Adrian Abonizio), which was recorded in Sao Paulo and produced by the pianist Lisandro Massa, with Iury Batista on bass and Carlos Bala on drums.

In 2024 Nieves released the album "Boleros", co-produced, recorded and arranged by the highly renowned Daniel Maza, a uruguayan bass player who is a living legend in his own right. The album features guitarist Leonardo Amuedo as a special guest, and includes Leandro Marquesano on piano, Daniel Maza on bass, Fabian Miodownik on drums and Agostina Bertozzi on percussion.
